

Heelwork To Music Training Day

Strictly Come Dancing For Shelties

If you have ever wanted to have a go at this new and growing sport, then why not join us on at our training day on Saturday January 16th 2010. All you need to bring is a Sheltie or two, loads of treats and a sense of fun. Lunch will be provided, along with tea, coffee and biscuits to keep your energy up! Book our place now and prepare to Boogie!

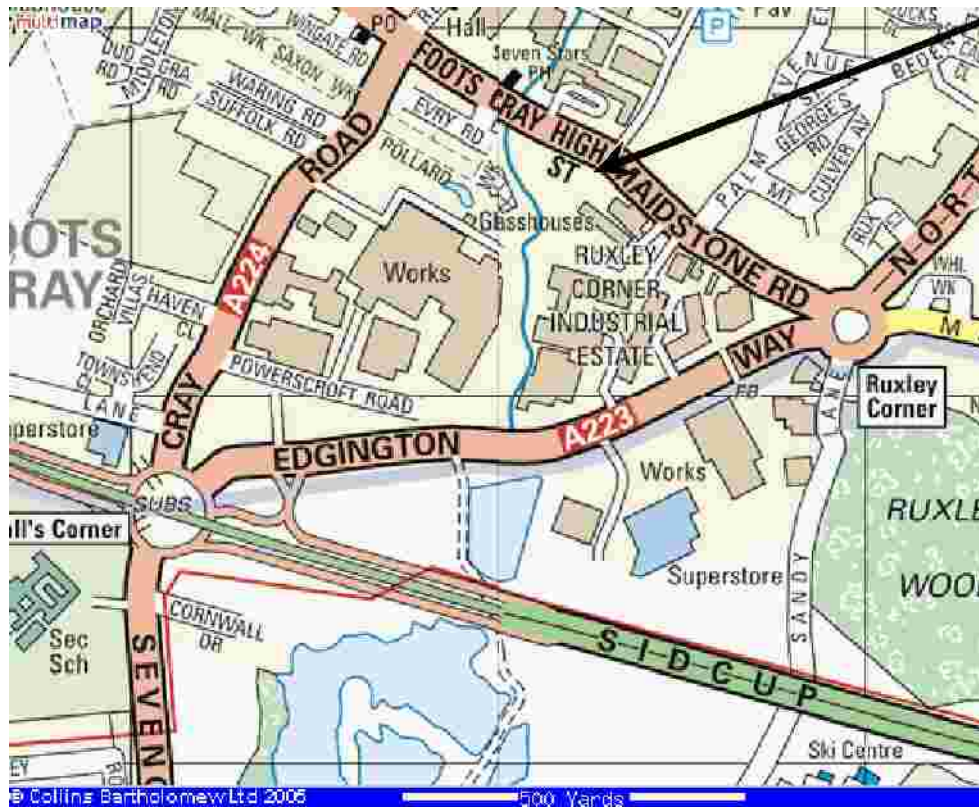

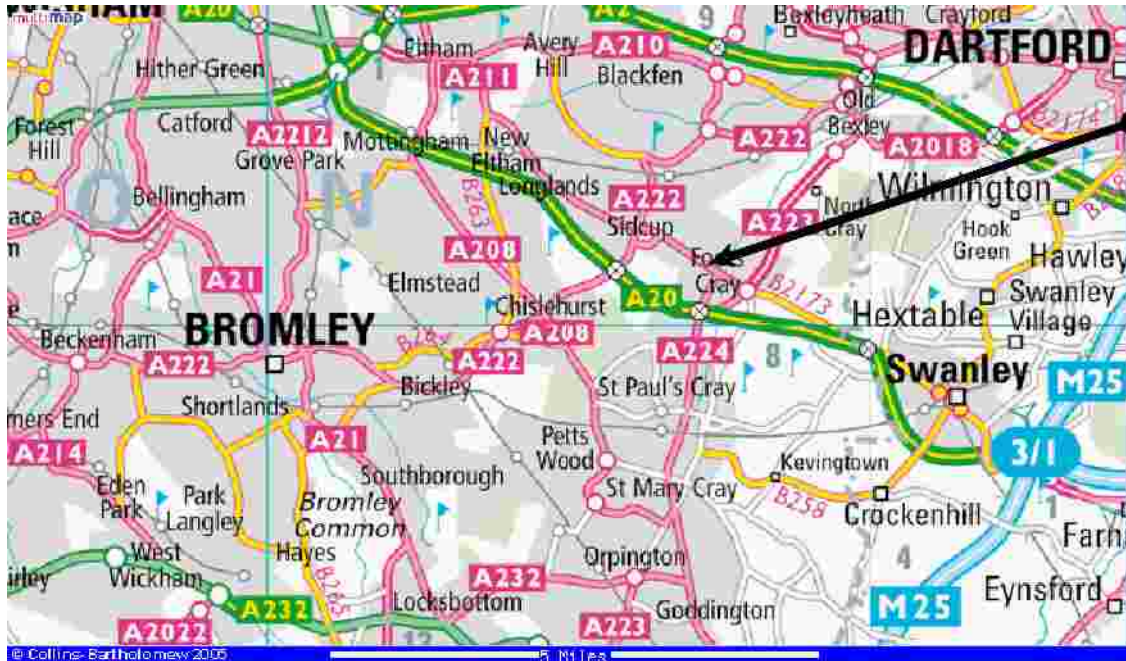

Your trainer for the day will be Jeanette Maggs. Jeanette has a background of Obedience, Agility and Heelwork To Music with her own Shelties and has been running a HTM training group for the several years.

The venue for this event is the Odd Fellows Hall, Maidstone Road, Footscray, Kent. There is car parking at the hall and dogs can be exercised in a large park that is just a few minutes walk away. Non-slip mats will cover the working area inside the hall in order to provide a safe working surface for your dogs. There is space in the hall for cages if required. Training on the day will start at 09:30 and end somewhere between 16:30 – 17:00, with a break at lunchtime from 12:30 until 14:00 that should provide time to walk the dogs and eat lunch.

Lunch is included and options for lunch will be Chicken & Chips, Fish & Chips or Veggie Burger & Chips.

The cost of the day will be £30 per handler for one dog and £15 for spectators. If any handlers would like to work two dogs, then this will be possible and the cost for the second dog will be £15.

Come and have a go – who knows, we may even get to put together a Sheltie display team one day!
