Sheltie Obedience Training Day

On Saturday 27th March 2010

*At Stonham Barns, Pettaugh Road, Stonham Aspal, Stowmarket
Suffolk IP14 6AT*

We are fortunate to have Kim Innes as our trainer for the day. Those of you who work in obedience will know Kim or her name very well. Kim has successfully competed at Crufts for a number of years, as well as winning on more than one occasion the Bitch Championships, and the Best Bitch for the year.

Kim has trained her Border Collies and her G.S.D to a very high standard having two Obedience Champions under her belt. And also qualified for ticket every dog she has worked, and won tickets with them all but one who had to be retired with health problems. As one would expect there is very little else you can say about Kim as her achievements do speak for themselves.

Kim believes that dog training should be FUN and ENJOYABLE for the dog and the handler, but also realises that all dogs are different what ever the Breed, and require various methods of training and stimulation. So please bring lots of tit-bits or their toys if you prefer. But firstly in her eyes a dog should have fun and everything else is a bonus.

Training will cover all standards and will start at 9.30 a.m. and will last until 5.00 p.m. with an hour break for lunch. There will also be short coffee breaks during the morning and afternoon. Teas and coffees will be provided but please bring a packed lunch with you.

The cost of the training is

Dog and Handler	£30 for Section Members	£35 for Non Members
Spectators	£15 for Section Members	£20 for Non Members
